

Community & Science Speak

Research, policy and practice meet

Booth Number 821

Center for Global Health Policy

Monday, July 23	11 – 12	Scaling up HIV treatment to save lives and reduce infections	Paul Volberding, MD Sharonann Lynch
	1 – 2	Prioritizing interventions and strategies for ending the epidemic in the US	Kimberly Smith, MD, MPH Terence Moore
	2:30 – 3:30	Community-based responses to TB/HIV Co-infection	Jerry Friedland, MD Lucy Cheshire
	4 – 5	The Cure	Steve Deeks, MD David Evans
	5:30 – 6:30	Responding to Hepatitis C and HIV co-infection	Michael Saag, MD Lynda Dee
Wednesday, July 25	11 – 12	Evaluating combination prevention in the field: A partnership of science and community	Sten Vermund Melissa Turner
	1 – 2	IDUs: A human rights and public health agenda	Neil Hunt Marcus Day
	3 – 4	MSM and transgender individuals: Reducing risk and providing patient-centered care and treatment in the developing world	Chris Collins Owen Ryan Xolile Mabusa Munya Katumba Friedel Dausab
	4:30 – 5:30	Engaging and keeping people in care and treatment: Roles for Community and Health Providers	Alicia Bunton Carlos del Rio, MD
	5:45 – 6:45	The HIV medicine pipeline in developing countries: Threats and Challenges	Matthew Kavanagh Brook Baker Kajal Bhardwaj
Friday, July 27	11 – 12	Prospects for a vaccine and the community role in launching the campaign	Nelson Michael, MD, PhD Mitchell Warren

