

Center for Global Health Policy

Treatment as Prevention: From Science to Implementation

Tuesday July 24

Reception: 5:30 – 6:30

Event: 6:30 PM – 8:30 PM

AAAS Auditorium (1200 New York Avenue NW – Metro Center Metro Stop)

Join a distinguished group of experts to discuss:

- Updates on the Science on Treatment as Prevention, Combination Prevention Trials, Testing and Engagement in Care
- Science Driving Public Policy
- Implementation Issues from the Provider and Advocate Perspective
- The Economics of Treatment as Prevention

Moderated by:

Sten Vermund, MD, PhD
Vanderbilt University School of Medicine

Barbara Jasny, Ph.D.
Deputy Editor for Commentary Science/AAAS

Featuring:

Till Barnighausen, MD
Harvard School of Public Health

Dazon Dixon Diallo, MPH
SisterLove, Inc.

John Blandford, Ph.D
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Donna Futterman, MD
Albert Einstein School of Medicine

Tom Coates, PhD
UCLA Program on Global Health

Jean Nachege, MD, MPH
Johns Hopkins University Bloomberg School of Public Health

Myron Cohen, MD
Univ. of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Nancy Padian, PhD, MPH
University of California at San Francisco

Blayne Cutler, MD
City of New York

Space is limited. Please RSVP at globalhealth@idsociety.org.