

Celebrating Bob Munk's Life

- *We have lost a great friend and mentor
- *Remarkably kind man
- *Fighting spirit and perseverance
- *Affable and generous nature

- AIDS activist since 1987, the year he tested positive
 - First development director for The NAMES Project San Francisco
 - Founder of the AIDS Service Providers Association of the Bay Area
- Founder of AIDS Infonet (1997), an internet-based patient education resource providing HIV treatment information in English, Spanish and several other languages
 - “The breadth of the bi-lingual and later multilingual aidsinfo.net resources were remarkable not just for insisting on accessible level language, but for updating everything in virtually real time. It was a tremendous amount of work”

Robert Munk, PhD

Bob and loving husband Enoch Ortega

- Founding member of the AIDS Treatment Activists Coalition (ATAC)
- Patient representative on the U.S. Food and Drug Administration Antiviral Drugs Advisory Committee
- Forum for Collaborative HIV Research Executive Committee
- HAART Oversight Committee (D:A:D)
- New Mexico Governor's HIV/AIDS Policy Commission